

Centre for Minerals Innovation, Saskatchewan Polytechnic

The initial funding for this project was to establish a Director position to develop a training program for the minerals industry needs with a detailed budget. The Centre was closed in the fall of 2016.