

IMII School of Mining

An Immersive Introduction to Mining

June 23 – 25, 2026

The Willows Golf & Country Club | 382 Cartwright Street, Saskatoon

Jack Nagy

Jack Nagy is a Chemical Engineer with over 51 years of experience in researching, developing, and designing processing methods and procedures. Mr. Nagy has expertise in process control, equipment selection, construction management and commissioning in potash and phosphate mining facilities. He has several years of operating experience in potash and phosphate facilities. Mr. Nagy has done many evaluations on proposed projects for technical and economic feasibility. Mr. Nagy has also assisted in the development of Preliminary Economic Assessments, Pre-Feasibility Studies, and Feasibility Studies (Potash, potassium sulfate, carnallite, phosphate,  $MgCl_2$ , Lithium, Boron).

Mr. Nagy has offered consulting services through Nagy Process Consulting Inc. since 2015.

